ACHCA CELEBRATES 60TH ANNIVERSARY

Washington, DC –November 2022–The American College of Health Care Administrators (ACHCA) celebrated its 60th anniversary on November 7th and will mark the occasion with various social media activities throughout the month. “Sixty years ago this month, a visionary group of long-term care professionals founded this association. Our founders saw a need for an association that would create and seek adherence to a professional code of ethics; promote the basic dignity of residents, their privacy, and their rights to quality care; motivate true professionalism; provide structured continuing education; and, through sheer excellence of administration, gain respect as a setter of the highest professional standards for the aging services profession,” said ACHCA President/CEO Bob Lane.”

“As we look to the future,” Lane continued, “Our founding objectives, and our mission to be the catalyst for excellence in post-acute and aging services leadership, have never been more important. We will continue to advance the interests of our members while working to ensure our members and the communities they lead are the gold standard for quality care and leadership. It was true in 1962, and it’s just as important in 2022.”

About ACHCA

Founded in 1962, the American College of Health Care Administrators (ACHCA) is the only professional association devoted solely to meeting the professional needs of today's post-acute and aging services leaders. Focusing on advancing leadership excellence, ACHCA provides professional education and certification to administrators from across the spectrum of long- term care.
