

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

James T. Farley Estate Donates $25,000 to Support ACHCA Mission

Rockville, MD — January 7, 2026 — The American College of Health Care Administrators (ACHCA) is honored to announce a generous $25,000 donation from the Estate of James T. Farley, recognizing Mr. Farley's lasting commitment to leadership, education, and excellence in long-term and post-acute care administration.

This meaningful gift will support ACHCA's ongoing efforts to advance professional development, leadership growth, and high-quality outcomes across the long-term care continuum. Contributions such as this help ensure ACHCA can continue to provide education, mentoring, and resources that strengthen administrators and the communities they serve.

"ACHCA is deeply grateful for this generous donation from the James Farley Estate," said Mark Prifogle, ACHCA Chair. "This gift reflects Mr. Farley's enduring dedication to the profession and will have a lasting impact on our ability to support current and future leaders."

James T. Farley was a respected and influential leader within ACHCA for decades. He served in key leadership roles at both the state and national levels, including leadership within the Ohio Chapter and as National President/Chair. He was inducted into the ACHCA Hall of Fame in 2020, an honor that reflects his significant contributions and enduring impact on health care administration. This donation made in his honor serves as a testament to his legacy of service, leadership, and commitment to professional excellence.

ACHCA extends its sincere appreciation to the Farley family and estate for this generous contribution and for their support of ACHCA's mission to elevate leadership and promote quality care nationwide.

For more information about ACHCA or to learn how to support its mission, visit www.achca.org.

About ACHCA

The American College of Health Care Administrators (ACHCA) is the leading professional association for leaders in long-term and post-acute care. ACHCA provides education, certification, and professional development opportunities to support excellence in leadership and quality outcomes.