American College of Health Care Administrators Announces New Executive Director

Rockville, MD. — July 15, 2025 — The American College of Health Care Administrators (ACHCA) is pleased to announce Jennifer English Lynch, CAE, as the new Executive Director.

Jennifer brings over 20 years of association management experience to MSP. Most of her expertise comes from working with professional societies, including the American Health Law Association and the American Immigration Lawyers Association, where she served as Senior Director of Governance and Component Relations and Director of Membership. Additionally, she has managed membership activities in professional organizations in the finance and education industries.

Jennifer has an extensive background in membership recruitment and retention, leadership training and development, and chapter relations. Known for her strategic mindset and collaborative leadership style, she has successfully led initiatives that drive member engagement and strengthen organizational governance.

Jennifer received a degree in Psychology from Providence College in Providence, RI.

"On behalf of the Board, I am thrilled to welcome Jennifer English Lynch to ACHCA as our new Executive Director. Her extensive background in association management, member engagement, and chapter relations brings exactly the kind of strategic insight and collaborative spirit our organization needs at this pivotal moment. Jennifer's experience across professional societies and her dedication to building meaningful member experiences align perfectly with ACHCA's mission to support and elevate administrators in post-acute and aging services. We look forward to her leadership as we continue advancing excellence in our profession," said Mark Prifogle, ACHCA Chairman.
