Call for Nominations: 2016 ACHCA Awards

Alexandria, VA – August 10, 2015 – The American College of Health Care Administrators (ACHCA) announced its official call for nominations for the 2016 Awards, which honor new and seasoned administrators, members and non-members, business partners, chapters and districts, and other leaders in the field. For more than 40 years, ACHCA has recognized leaders with demonstrated contributions and exceptional commitment to ACHCA and the field of post-acute and aging services leadership.

Nominees for the ACHCA Awards should demonstrate an exceptional commitment and innovative effort to improving the quality of care for those in long term care settings while maintaining the highest professional standards. Ideal candidates have contributed their time and resources to the mission of promoting excellence in post-acute and aging services leadership. Award winners will be honored at a celebratory luncheon in Philadelphia on Tuesday, April 19, 2016, during ACHCA's 50th Annual Convocation and Exposition.

Founded in 1962, the American College of Health Care Administrators (ACHCA) is the only professional association devoted solely to meeting the professional needs of today's post-acute and aging services leaders. Focused on advancing leadership excellence, ACHCA provides professional education and certification to administrators from across the spectrum of long term care. For more information about ACHCA or the 2015 Convocation contact the national office at (202) 536-5120 or visit www.achca.org.
