Call for Nominations: 2018 ACHCA Awards

Washington, DC – September 26, 2017 – The American College of Health Care Administrators (ACHCA) announced its official call for nominations for the 2018 Awards, which honor new and seasoned administrators, members and non-members, business partners, chapters and districts, and other leaders in the field. For more than 40 years, ACHCA has recognized leaders with demonstrated contributions and exceptional commitment to ACHCA and the field of post-acute and aging services leadership.

Nominees for the ACHCA Awards should demonstrate an exceptional commitment and innovative effort to improving the quality of care for those in long term care settings while maintaining the highest professional standards. Ideal candidates have contributed their time and resources to the mission of promoting excellence in post-acute and aging services leadership. Chapter/District Achievement Award applications are due by December 19, 2017.

Award winners will be honored at a celebratory luncheon in Orlando, Florida during ACHCA's 52nd Annual Convocation & Exposition, April 22-24, 2018.

Founded in 1962, the American College of Health Care Administrators (ACHCA) is the only professional association devoted solely to meeting the professional needs of today's post-acute and aging services leaders. Focused on advancing leadership excellence, ACHCA provides professional education and certification to administrators from across the spectrum of long term care.
